

SPEAK-up

Supporting Parents' Early Action for Kids

Feeling overwhelmed supporting families in their Early Intervention journey?

We are here to help! SPEAK-up is a twice a month, virtual parent group for families who want to learn more about EI. The group offers helpful resources, evidence-based child development information, and the opportunity for families to connect with one another.

Who is eligible?

This group is FREE for any family with children 0-3 enrolled, waitlisted, or interested in learning more about EI.
