

Ron W. Lee, MD - Excellence in Pediatric Care Awards

The Ron W. Lee, MD - Excellence in Pediatric Care Awards are presented annually by the Illinois Department of Public Health and Illinois Emergency Medical Services for Children to recognize individuals and organizations dedicated to pediatric care and childhood injury prevention initiatives. The awards are presented each May during celebration of Emergency Medical Services Week. Dr. Lee was the Director of Emergency Medicine at Loyola University Medical Center and was instrumental in establishing and fostering the EMSC program in Illinois. When he passed away in 1998, these awards were set up in his honor to recognize those who carry on his commitment to childhood care.

Nominations for the awards are received from throughout the state. Individuals or organizations can be nominated in one of the following three award categories - Lifetime Achievement, Clinical Excellence and Community Service.
